Gift of Mrs. Ralph King

STERNER, ALBERT EDWARD, 1863-1946

Born London, England, of American parents. Died New York, New York. Painter, etcher, lithographer, lecturer, and writer. Pupil of Boulanger, Lefèbvre and Gérôme at Jullian Academy, Paris. American painter and draughtsman of sound taste and execution, who devoted his lithographs largely to figure subjects.

446. Earth
The Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Williams Collection

STORM VAN 'S-GRAVESANDE, CAREL NICOLAAS, 1841-1924

Born Breda (North Brabant), Netherlands. Died The Hague (South Holland). Painter, etcher, and lithographer. Pupil of W. Roelofs and Rops in Brussels. Most important Dutch etcher of 19th century; prolific creator, devoting most of his subjects, including his lithographs, to landscape, treated openly and simply.

447. Lagoon, Morning
The Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Williams Collection

STOTHARD, THOMAS, 1755-1834

Born and died London, England. Apprenticed to designer of patterns for silks. No formal art training until he studied at Royal Academy Schools in 1777. Competent illustrator of his own period, producing over 5000 items, including many engravings and woodcuts and a few lithographs. His ideal types drawn with genial grace and sinuous line.

448. Figure in a Doorway (Plate 11)
From Specimens of Polyautography Pennell pp. 89, 90
The Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Williams Collection

TENG, KWEI, 1902-

Born Süchow (Kiangsu), China. Painter, sculptor, and lithographer. Mostly self-taught. Spent some years working and teaching in U. S. A. Though his work remains essentially Chinese in subject, spirit, and technique, it strikes a modern note in its impressionistic style, attained by use of bold strokes relieved by fine lines.

449. Rain on the Yangtse
The Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Williams Collection

THIÉNON, ANNE CLAUDE, 1772-1846

Born and died Paris, France. Landscape painter, watercolorist, and lithographer. Pupil of J. M. Moreau le Jeune. Painted and lithographed scenes of environs of Rome and of French provinces.
