SPECIAL NOTICES

University Service. The preacher for Sunday, April 23, at 10 : 30 A.M. is Rev. Samuel L. S. Lee. After the service there will be an election of a new Chinese Chaplain for the year 1933-34.

Faculty Discussion Group. At the meeting of the Faculty Discussion Group next Tuesday evening, further consideration will be given to the Chapter on University Education in the Report of the League of Nations Commission on Education in China. Particular attention will be centered in the following points :

1. Educational Standards and Methods.

2. Dr. Stephen Duggan's "Critique" of the Report from the standpoint of an American educator.

Copies of the "Report" and of the "Critique" may be consulted in the President's Office.

Return of Mr. Ts'ai. Last week the Bulletin conveyed to the University community the welcome news that Mr. Ts'ai was returning to his former position. We are now glad to report further that Mr. Ts'ai has returned and resumed his place in the Treasurer's and Comptroller's offices on Thursday morning, April 20.

Student Party to go to America. Similar to plans of last year, Mr. E. M. Hayes is again organizing student parties to go to America this coming summer. Those interested are referred to the detailed information published in the April 13 issue of the Yenching Gazette.

College of Public Affairs. Seventeen recent graduates of the Departments of Political Science and Jurisprudence have applied for certification as lawyers, and several of them have already received their certificates, while others are awaiting a reply from the Ministry of Justice.

Department of Economics. The Bank of China every year conducts a strict examination for those who would like to join the bank. About forty students from various Universities took the examination last July. Only five passed the examination successfully, and three out of the five were graduates of the Department of Economics. Two of them were offered positions immediately, one in the Shanghai office and the other in Tsingtao. The third one was put first on the waiting list, and recently received a communication offering him a position in their branch at Amoy.

Art Club. The University Art Club takes pleasure in announcing an important exhibition of paintings by the members of the Art Research Society of Peking from April 28 to May 3, at the University Gallery.

Tea will be served on Saturday, April 29, from 3 : 00 to 5 : 00 P.M. to exhibiting artists and the public by Mrs. Lucius Porter, Mrs. E. O. Wilson, Mrs. E. K. Smith, Miss Ssu-t'u, and Mrs. Y. P. Mei. Faculty and students are all urged to come.

There will be also an exhibition of Chinese old Musical instruments arranged by Mr. Bliss Wiant at the same time.
