SPECIAL NOTES

The English Vesper Service this Sunday will be the last one of the semester. The Fellowship will be glad to arrange for an informal song service during the summer if there is any desire for one. Please communicate with the chaplains if you have any ideas.

Memorial Service. Owing to the semester examinations beginning this week, and the summer vacation which follows right after the examination period, the Monday morning Memorial Service will be suspended for the rest of this academic year.

Notice from the Students' Welfare Office : This is to state that the students who wish to have summer residence privilege this summer should :

1. Get the permission from the deans.
2. Register for the privilege at the Welfare Committee or at the Dean's Office of the College for Women, if the applicant is a woman student, on June 21 - 24.

Art Club News. There will be an exhibition of Mr. T'eng's Paintings at the University Gallery for two days only on next Sunday and Monday, June 11, and 12, Gallery will be open to the public from 9:00 A.M. to 7:00 P.M. All are invited. (This same exhibition will be given in central Park, Peiping, from 14 to 21.)

Announcement from the Dairy. The Dairy Management begs to announce that beginning on Monday, June 12, the cost of cream shall be increased to 45 cents (3 milk tickets) per pint.

Faculty on Furlough. Now that so many of the faculty members are leaving for furlough, or otherwise, it would be much appreaciated if they would leave their itineraries and forwarding addresses in the President's Office. This will be helpful to us all.

Christian Fellowship Hymns. (團契聖歌集). The second edition is now on sale. It is bound in a very attractive blue cover with specially written Chinese characters by Jung Keng on a yellow background. The printing of the music is much superior to the first edition. More than 25 new hymns have been added thus making the book larger in content, and consequently increasing its selling price to $1.20. There is no book in China which is meeting the needs of youth in Christian circles as this book. Every worker should be equipped with a copy. They can be secured by leaving your order with Bliss Wiant, Ninde Hall.

The Banner, presented by the Pan - ch'an Lama, now hanging in the Reception Room, has been translated by Mr. Hsü Ti-shan as follows :—

1. By the power of compassion of the Three Jewels,
2. All the worlds enjoy peace and happiness.
3. All the countries enjoy prosperity.
4. Especially by the excellent features of this "doctrine"
5. The intellectual horizon of all the living beings is broadened.
6. And because [they] appreciate knowledge and sciences,
7. [They] constantly enjoy perfect happiness till the end of the world.
8. I pray that these excellent features may burst into flames.

("Doctrine" means westernized education of Yenching)

For Rent at Western Hills. Mr. Ritter's cottage at Ch'ao Yang An, Western Hills, is available for rental during the summer; Yenching faculty given preference.

For Rent at Peitaiho. 2 rooms at East Cliff, very close to beach. One room is suitable for two; the smaller for one person. Terms will comform to those prevailing this summer. Apply to Mrs. H. L. Robinson, T'unghsien.
