vestment Committee; the review of the Prudential Committee actions for the year; the granting of degrees and diplomas according to the recommendations of the General Faculty; and the approval of the entire list of faculty changes and appointments recommended by the General Council. All these faculty changes are put on record in a later section of the report, dealing with the Faculty.

At the annual meeting the report of the Auditing Committee, based on a complete examination of all books and documents of the Treasurer's office, was presented and approved.

A Trustee Committee of three was appointed to consider ways and means for the proposed financial campaign, to report at the next meeting of the Board. The Committee as appointed consisted of Messrs. H. H. Johnson, A. C. Miller, and L. T. Warner.

Upon recommendation of the Faculty, the Trustees also voted to take the important step of establishing a four-year course leading to the degree of Bachelor of School Music. This is in accordance with the recommendation of the Educational Council of the Music Supervisors National Conference. The course consists of about one-quarter academic work, one-quarter pedagogic subjects, and one-half music studies. Oberlin is the first school to take this step. The department of Public School Music has made rapid gains under the supervision of Professor Gehrkens, and this adoption of a four-year degree course has come as a natural result.

At the semi-annual meeting of the Board of Trustees, on the recommendation of the Faculty and of the Trustee Committee on Honorary Degrees, authority was voted for conferring the following honorary degrees at the commencement exercises, June 21, 1922. The degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred upon Mr. George Wilson Morgan of New York City, "distinguished counsellor at law in a great city, honored and trusted by his fellow members of the bar, arship funds, and has also noted the important service which the theological Faculty are rendering through addresses and conferences.

The Conservatory of Music

The year brought one very important change in the Heads of Departments, in the retirement of Professor Charles W. Morrison from the Directorship of the Conservatory of Music.

Professor Morrison graduated from the Conservatory in 1880 and was at once made an Instructor in Pianoforte for the two years 1880-82. During the three following years, 1882-85, he was studying abroad. He then returned to his Instructorship and held that rank for the seven years, 1885-92. He was then promoted to a Professorship in Pianoforte. He was elected Director of the Conservatory in 1902. And thus at his retirement he had completed twenty-two years as Director, and forty-four years of connection with the Conservatory Faculty—a remarkable term of service.

Under his Directorship important gains were made. June 22, 1903, the Trustees voted that hereafter students in the Conservatory of Music should before graduation satisfy college entrance requirements. In view of this action a degree in Music, that of Bachelor of Music (Mus.B.), has since 1903 been conferred upon the graduates of the Conservatory of Music. Since September, 1908, all students admitted to the Conservatory Department have been held for college entrance requirements.

In June, 1913, the number of students in the Conservatory of Music was limited to 400, a limit which has been maintained since that time.

In 1921 the Supervisors Training Course in School Music was extended from three to four years and the degree of Bachelor of School Music was authorized for its graduates.

University. He studied violin in England, singing with Ivan Morawski of Boston, and also studied piano and harmony. He was a private teacher in Worcester, Massachusetts, and in Rochester, New York; he was chorus director and, for six years, head of the voice department at the Pennsylvania College for Women, and for seven years at Pittsburgh Musical Institute.

Miss Birdie Helen Holloway received the degree of Bachelor of School Music from Oberlin Conservatory of Music in 1922; Leo Clare Holden and Werner Kirk Ridge each received the degree of Bachelor of Music from the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, in 1920 and 1918, respectively.

Outside Work and Lectures

The activities of the Faculty, not only academic but in unacademic lines, are an illustration of the many outside demands which are now made upon the time and strength of the modern college professor. Practically every teacher belongs to a number of organizations in his own field, whose annual meetings or occasional meetings he endeavors to attend. Such attendance is highly desirable from the College point of view, and the College has very wisely undertaken in part to meet the expenses connected with such attendance. The list of outside activities in the way of addresses is quite too long to find a place in this report, and indicates a very general recognition of the work which the members of the Faculty are doing.

G. T. S., '90—On August 31st, Dr. William E. Barton, for twenty-five years pastor of the First church, Oak Harbor, Ill., terminated his active pastorate. His inspiring service and distinguished record received a fitting tribute in the "Congregationalist" last March, on his twenty-fifth anniversary as pastor. At the anniversary dinner the congregation presented Dr. and Mrs. Barton with a purse of $5,000 to be used toward the expenses of a contemplated trip around the world.

as many members of the reunion classes as the former "Mid-Week Commencement," and the attendance of other alumni and friends is probably similarly reduced.

Summary of All Students: Ninety-three Years

When the Seventy-fifth Anniversary Catalogue was published in 1908 a complete list was printed giving the names of all students who had been in attendance in any department of Oberlin College at any time during the seventy-five years of Oberlin's history. The total was found to be 35,682. The following table shows the additional new students:

Students enrolled prior to 1908	35,682
In the period 1908-13	3,857
In the period 1913-18	3,346
In the period 1918-23	3,461
In the period 1923-26	1,956
	48,302

The above total of 48,302 is divided as follows:

Graduates	8,943
Non-Graduates	39,359
	48,302

figure for 1926-27 being 49.6 per cent. During the last three years there has been another slight recession, the percentage in 1927-28 being 48.42; for 1928-29 it was 47.08; for 1929-30 it was 46.87.

The Freshmen Tenth

Each year the Registrar's office announces a Freshman Honor list, containing the names of ten per cent of the Freshman class with highest average scholarship grades. Only those who have taken not less than fifteen hours of work are eligible for the Freshman tenth.

The list is arranged alphabetically. The highest average grade was secured by Miss Hall; Miss Ferguson and Miss Monroe were tied for the second highest grade. Those whose names are marked with a star (*) ranked in the highest ten of the class.
