tion is begun, and it is therefore urged that most of this work be done in the freshman and sophomore years.

The student is required to choose his major subject by the beginning of the junior year. Each junior and senior must confer with his major professor and get his written approval of his courses before presenting it to the Dean.

If a student is deficient in English he will do well to place this subject on his schedule for extra work. The Dean reserves the right, upon the recommendation of any instructor, to prescribe additional work in English for any student.

The Dean will act as an advisor to all freshmen and sophomore students, but after the choice of his major is made each student will take the instructor in charge of his major subject as his advisor. No work should be taken by a student without consulting his advisor.

REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREES

It is the policy of Abilene Christian College to offer few degrees and to make these standard and worthwhile. From 1919 to 1931 it offered only the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Since 1931 it offers two: Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science. For the degree of Bachelor of Arts it sets the following requirements:

1. Fifteen standard high school units must be offered for admission.
2. One hundred ninety-two term hours of college credit must be presented, together with two hundred fifty-six credit points.
3. Freshman and sophomore English must be presented and three hours advanced English.
4. Freshman Bible is required and twelve additional hours. Students entering with advanced standing from other colleges must do one-ninth of their Abilene Christian College work in Bible.
5. If the student builds his foreign language upon his two years of high school foreign language he is required to do only eighteen hours, otherwise he must do twenty-one in one foreign language or eighteen and nine in two foreign languages.
6. Not less than eighteen term-hours must be offered in social science (geography, history, economics, sociology, and religious education). Three hours of this must be in government and six must be in American history.
7. Eighteen hours of natural science requiring laboratory work must be done. Young ladies may offer as much as nine hours of home economics toward meeting this requirement. Young men may offer three hours of home economics.
8. Not less than nine hours of mathematics must be offered; or, in lieu of this, nine hours of an ancient language. If the language is offered here it must be in addition to the language requirements.
9. Six term-hours of physical training are required of all candidates for the B. A. degree.
10. Three hours of public speaking are required and three hours of psychology.

At least twenty-one of these must be advanced. In his first minor he must finish at least twenty-seven hours and may not do more than forty, and in the second minor at least twenty-one and not more than thirty-six. He must do at least forty-eight advanced hours in his major and two minors.

When a student has selected his major subject, the head of that department becomes his advisor. In conference with this professor the student should then select his two minors, and must have his professor approve his course of study each time he registers before the Dean approves his course card. The minors selected shall be closely related to his major subject.

12. Character requirements.
Mere intellectual attainment is not the sole basis for graduation nor should it be the largest factor. It is the purpose to recommend for graduation from this institution only such young men and women as have clean morals and are honest, trustworthy, and free from such bad habits as: the use of intoxicants, gambling in any form, neglecting to settle all obligations punctually and satisfactorily, or any other habits that the faculty may specify as injurious and degrading to the individual and hurtful to the College. Every candidate for graduation is required to make formal application for graduation not later than October 1st of the year in which he proposes to graduate.

13. By May 10 of the year that the student expects to graduate he is required to pass a formal and extensive examination covering the work of his major subject. These examinations are much more pretentious than term examinations and should require three or more hours to write. These examinations are given under the direction of the student's major professor.

14. On entering college a freshman is required to take a searching examination covering the "Mechanics of English." If he makes a failing grade he is required to take and pass a special course in English covering both oral and written English Composition and English Grammar. This is English 13. It carries no academic credit.

15. Degrees are formally conferred at the June commencement and at the close of the summer term in August.

16. All candidates for the B. A. degree who average nine grade points for each three-hour course presented and who make at least 95 per cent on the senior examination are graduated "with highest honors"; those candidates averaging eight points for each three-hour course and who make at least 92 per cent on their senior examination are graduated "with high honors"; those candidates who make seven grade points for each three-hour course taken and who make a grade of at least 89 per cent on their senior examination are graduated "with honors." These phrases are put on their diplomas, public announcement is made at graduation time and special reference is made of these graduates in the next catalog.

PAT MALONE, B. M., DIRECTOR

"Art may be defined as a beautiful thought made visible to us through painting, audible to us through music, or both audible and visible through poetry and the drama. Having the same source, all arts are akin: and they vary, not in principle but in their means and modes of expression."

Faculty and equipment in the Fine Arts Department of Abilene Christian College have been chosen not only with the purpose of making the courses standard, but also to make them distinctly Christian.
